

INSTRUCTIONS FOR APPLYING TO THE ENGLISH M.A. PROGRAM
APPLICATION DEADLINE: JANUARY 1

Applicants will be solely responsible for ensuring that all application materials are received by the deadline of January 1.

Submit the following items to the Office of Graduate Education. See the How to Apply page of their website (<https://manoa.hawaii.edu/graduate/content/how-apply>) for full details on items 1 – 4.

1. The Graduate Admissions Application
2. The admissions application fee
3. Transcripts from each postsecondary institution you have attended
4. Certain applicants may be required to submit the following items:
 - Residency Declaration Form
 - Proof of sufficient funding (international students only)
 - Official TOEFL or IELTS exam scores (international students only)
5. GRE scores. Only the General Test (verbal reasoning, quantitative reasoning, and analytical writing sections) is required. For applicants who hold degrees in fields other than English, taking the Subject Test in Literature (in addition to the General Test) is advisable. Register for the GRE at <http://www.ets.org/gre>.
6. A Statement of Objectives. In evaluating applications, we place a great deal of weight on your statement, which is your chance to give the admissions committee a clear sense of why you want a master's degree in English, which concentration you are interested in, why you have chosen our program in particular, and what you hope to gain from your studies. We recommend that you refer to our website (<http://www.english.hawaii.edu/>) to familiarize yourself with our program and the concentrations we offer. Your statement should be no longer than one single-spaced page.
7. Three letters of recommendation, preferably from professors from whom you have recently taken courses in your field. These letters should assess your abilities and achievements, and they should evaluate your potential for success in our program. For your letters of recommendation, you should choose professors who know your work well: a general statement of approval is worth much less than a precise and detailed account of what kind of work you have done and what kinds of abilities you have demonstrated. It is usually helpful to your recommenders if you provide them with a brief curriculum vitae and a copy of your statement of objectives. It is your responsibility to ensure that the letters are submitted before the deadline of January 1.

Creative writing applicants: At least one letter of recommendation should attest to your abilities in analytical writing.

8. A writing sample. Submit a single critical essay you have written that demonstrates your ability to do graduate work in English. The sample should be your best work and does not need to relate to your intended area of study. The critical sample should be 8-12 pages in length (including end notes and Works Cited pages), double-spaced, with one-inch margins and pages numbered. A Works Cited page must be included. Writing samples that do not adhere to this format may be returned. Although the critical writing sample is a required application item, it is not as heavily weighted as your Statement of Objectives and letters of recommendation.

9. If you are planning to do a creative thesis, you must also submit a second writing sample illustrating your creative work in the genre of your choice. The creative writing sample should be 15-20 pages in length, with one-inch margins and pages numbered. Your name should appear on the first page. Fiction samples should be double-spaced, but poetry samples need not be. If multiple works (multiple short stories, poems, or a mix of the two) are submitted, the page count should not exceed 20, and a table of contents should be included. Writing samples that do not adhere to this format may be returned. Spoken word poets are encouraged to also submit an audio file to accompany the written works. Your creative writing sample is key to your admission to the creative writing concentration.

You will receive a confirmation email from the English Department once all of your application items are received, or if you are missing any items after the application deadline. While we appreciate hearing from you, please understand that excessive inquiries about your application status will slow down the admission process.
