Notes:

- Courses with final grades of C- or lower cannot fulfill degree requirements
- A maximum of 2 400-level courses will count toward the degree
- A maximum of 3 credits of ENG 699 Directed Reading may be taken in place of coursework. Students must complete a 699 request form and obtain approval from the English Graduate Director in advance.

Other Degree Requirements
Pre-1898 course. Students must take at least one graduate course that covers materials (texts, documents, events) that were written or occurred before the twentieth century. When there is a compelling justification, the Graduate Director may approve the use of a 400-level course to meet this requirement. ENG 625 may not be used to fulfill the pre-1898 requirement.
Hawai'i/Asia/Pacific content course. Students must take – but not in addition to present credit requirements – one course with substantial Hawai'i/Asia/Pacific content, to be fulfilled at the 400-level or above, in or out of the English Department, while in residence at UH Mānoa. ENG 625 may not be used to fulfill the HAP requirement.
Second Language Requirement (must be fulfilled before advancing to the thesis stage) Fulfilled in one of the following ways: a) Language 202 course equivalent or higher, minimum grade of B. b) A reading proficiency examination administered by the appropriate university department. c) Native speakers of a language other than English will be considered to have fulfilled the second language requirement.
Departmental Events. Students in coursework must attend four departmental events (lectures, readings, colloquia) each semester. We'll have an attendance sheet at most events, but by the end of the semester students must email a list of events attended to the Graduate Director.
